Unfinished Furniture Advertising Coalition Licensing Agreement

The license fee paid for use of Design Collection graphics does not constitute ownership. Licensee acknowledges and agrees that Concept Design retains all rights of copyright of the subject material. All images are Digimarc™ secured. The license fee does, however, allow the purchaser of the license use of the graphics as follows:

1. The licensee may use the licensed Design Collection graphics in “store promotion applications” free of copyright infringement. A "store promotion application" is defined as a print media, web media, television advertising, direct mail campaigns or other similar promotions designed to promote customer traffic to the store.
2. The licensee may alter the existing licensed Design Collection graphics to include sales-specific information, such as adding lettering, text or backgrounds.
3. The licensee may not transfer the license to another individual or group without the express written permission of Concept Design Group.
4. The licensee may not, in any fashion or media, reproduce any licensed graphics for offering to other parties, either individually or in a collection, whether for free or for fee.
